

Frijid Pink

Rick Stevers: Drummer, Originator, and Driving Force Behind Frijid Pink. Rick was the founding member of the band in 1967, and set the bar for the driving Detroit Rock Sound. Music is in his blood, will always will be, and when you see him behind his drums, you'll know he is in command.

Rick Zeithaml: Lead Guitar, Lead and Backing Vocals. Rick 'Z' teaches guitar in his spare time, and after hearing him play, you'll really understand why. Yet another strong voice in the band, his smiling face and awesome stage presence really match his lead guitar style. Rick's guitar & voice always draws you into the moment. His notable history of touring since his teens makes him an important addition to Frijid Pink.

Brent Austin: Bass Guitar, Lead and Backing Vocals. Brent's musical talents are a natural gift and it really shows during his performance. Watching him on stage is watching someone in the environment they belong. His bass sounds are hard and in the pocket. His vocals showcase his high, sweet voice that all the ladies love. Singing and playing his heart out, his goal is to share his love and joy for music with others. Brent's also the comedian of the group and he always leaves you with a smile.

Ricky Houke: Lead Guitar, Lead & Backing Vocals. Ricky has that rough, rowdy, and gravelly voice that keeps you rocking. His guitar screams rock and blues with a sound that says Detroit. Rick's guitar solos seem effortless, yet very diverse. Very soulful and emotional, It is like he is right at home, where he belongs, with Frijid Pink.

Chuck 'Chas' Mangus: Keys, Lead and Backing Vocals, Harp. A very versatile member of the band, Chuck's talented fingers on the keys go from that sweet piano sound, to the B-3 sound that we all love to hear. He studied at Interlochen Music Camp for years which really comes through during his performance. The combination of the keyboard, harmonica, with his powerful and soulful voice, pulls you in and keeps you there. His friendly face matches his off stage personality. All of these qualities make him a wonderful addition to the band.
